Scott & White Worth the Wait®
Wellness and Sexual Health Curriculum
Teacher Training Conference

Scott & White is a nationally recognized leader in abstinence education and the training of teachers, administrators, counselors, healthcare providers, social workers, youth ministers, and the local community on the health aspects associated with adolescent sexual activity. We are once again offering our innovative training conference to individuals who play a role in the life of a teen. A key feature of the conference is the review of the middle and high school curriculum with an emphasis on teaching strategies for implementation in the classroom. A variety of engaging classroom activities will be demonstrated. Topics include the following:

What Teachers Need to Know about Teens & Sex, STD Update (AIDS, Hepatitis, HPV, HSV), Teens, Sex & the Law, Curriculum Overview, Lessons, Activities, and Teaching Strategies.

Teachers, school administrators, school nurses, and counselors are encouraged to attend. This conference is designed to train both middle and high school teachers. Check-in will open at 7:30a and will adjourn at 3:30p. The cost is $150 per person; $175 after January 11, 2012.

January 25, 2012 Hilton Garden Inn, 1749 Scott Boulevard, Temple, TX 76504
